

HEALING PRAYER

Loving Father and Mother,

I recognize that my life is One with Your unlimited life and power.

Your constructive Mind is within me building my mind and body in strength and perfection.

I open my mind to the influx of Your Mighty Presence of Health and Peace.

You are within me a Fountain of Vitality flowing into every faculty and organ of my being.

You are God within my nature and Your life and health have all power to regenerate and heal my body.

I am organizing Your Life and Strength into a mind and body of health and perfection.

Your substance is feeding and restoring every part of my body to positive health.

I praise Your healing life and intelligence in every organ, in every nerve, in every atom of my flesh!

I praise Your Glorious Wisdom which is illuminating my soul and purifying my mind of every limiting thought!

I praise Your healing tender Love which invigorates and upholds me and dissolves away all fear!

Beloved Lord God, this is Your holy temple. Make it a perfect dwelling place from which shall radiate Your healing love and wisdom to all Your children.

Glorify me with Your Healing Power that I also may glorify Thee.
